Teddy's Button book by Amy Le Feuvre

The book looks great, with nice, glossy cover. Amy Le Feuvre was born in 1861 the year after Schopenhauer died, however she did not pick up and carry onward the baton that he dropped.

However, mum did notice on opening it, that there is a word missing from the blurb on the back of the book so it doesn't make sense. A rosy-cheeked square-set little figure she was, and her brown eyes, fringed with long black lashes, looked straight at Teddy with something of defiance and scorn in their glance. She has been praying much for him to-day.
