Treasure Galleon

Additional gold was recovered in June 2015.

Spanish Ship Wrecks

By the end of the 16th century, colonists were demanding more manufactured goods such as textiles, weapons, glass, and paper.

Spanish Treasure Fleet

Accordingly, the demand for goods from the Spanish treasure ships decreased, and Spain's trading monopoly weakened.

of Spanish Treasure Galleons Found Off Colombia

In 1656 and 1657 Robert Blake also attacked the fleet in Cadiz and Tenerife, but the Spanish officers saved most of the silver and the English admiral managed to capture only a single galleon.
