There is widespread support for the principle of creating more sustainable communities, but much hazy, wishful-thinking about what this might mean in practice. It is neither an idealistic, utopian tract nor a designer's manual, but is, rather, a serious attempt to address the real issues. In reality, we witness more the death of local neighbourhoods than their creation or rejuvenation, reflecting an increasingly mobile, privatized and commodified society.

The cover may have some limited signs of wear but the pages are clean, intact and the spine remains undamaged. It will be of immense benefit, not only to town planners but also to all those professional and voluntary groups and politicians who seek to create the new communities of tomorrow' From the Foreword by Jed Griffiths, Past President of the Royal Town Planning Institute' .
