Children of the Promise: Volumes 1

Twila Paris, pregnant and already showing, was a lovely Elizabeth.

I couldn't help myself with this one. I can't imagine what the people who actually went through World War II who lost loved ones, found they're heartthrob had been killed in battle, and others who actually found love and felt joy in the middle of War.

Getting to Know Children of the Promise

He wants to comfort you. A jealous regard for what is termed theological truth often accompanies a hatred of genuine truth as made manifest in life.

The Children of the Promise

Rachel Lampa, who was poorly cast as Anna the old woman at the temple , would have been a sweeter, more realistic Mary. Countless studies show that nurturing family environments support healthy child growth and development and in the context of a family, children learn how to interact socially and to express feelings and thoughts by watching family members. I am enjoying this series of historical fiction about life during World War
