Why can't we agree on what's true any more?

These are the effects of mass media especially in teenagers, they buy what they see on tv, what their favorite celebrity advertise and what is acceptable by society based on the fashion that the media has imposed on them.

Expect delays and power plays: Google and Facebook brace as news media bargaining code is set to become law

There are millions of adolescents fighting obesity, but at the same time they are exposed to thousands of advertisements of junk food, while the ideal image of a successful person is told to be thin and wealthy.

Mediated representations of violence against women in the mainstream news in Australia

While we are now able to see evidence for ourselves, we all have conflicting ideas of what bit to attend to, and what it means.

Mediated representations of violence against women in the mainstream news in Australia

The Treasury Laws Amendment Bill 2020 news media and digital platforms mandatory bargaining code will be introduced to parliament today, before being referred to a Senate committee. First, we were deliberately broad in scope by prospectively monitoring all news reports on violence against women. Press reporting and the reality of rape.
