In addition, Molly Brown was saved and later had medals made up for the crew of the Carpathia that picked the survivors of Titanic up from the water. In 1914, the International Conference on Safety Of Life At Sea agreed on a treaty that called for every ship to carry sufficient lifeboats for all persons on board. Titanic facts 1 Titanic was built by a company called White Star Line.

Titanic Facts

Today, the city of Halifax and the Province of Nova Scotia retain many reminders of the way in which the tragedy of the Titanic touched the lives of those who lived here. On board the Titanic were 20,000 bottles of beer, 1,500 bottles of wine, and 8,000 cigars, all for the first class passengers.

Titanic (1997)

The grand staircase—there were several staircases—descended seven of the ship's ten decks, and featured oak paneling and bronze cherubs.

Titanic Facts

Through detailed articles and biographies you will discover the truth about the greatest shipwreck in history. Rolling over and over upon the turf the two battled with demoniac fury, until the colossal cat, by doubling his hind paws far up beneath his belly sank his talons deep into Taglat's chest, then, ripping downward with all his strength, Numa accomplished his design, and the disemboweled anthropoid, with a last spasmodic struggle, relaxed in limp and bloody dissolution beneath his titanic adversary.

There have been attempts to stop treasure seeking missions such as the one portrayed in Titanic but all have failed. These can be seen today in museums around the world and include jewellery, perfumes, plates, clothes, furniture and even lunch menus! The richest man on the ship, John Jacob Astor, who owned most of Manhattan died nonetheless as well, but his much younger wife was saved in a lifeboat. When the ship sank, the lives of both the famous and the unknown were lost as well.
