Painted Monasteries & Wooden Churches of Romania

Labels Monser, Varius, Senator, Omnia, Suav, Glia. Sucevița was a princely residence as well as a fortified monastery and its thick walls today shelter a museum that presents an outstanding collection of historical and art objects.

Moldovița Monastery

Today, only the church and a wooden bell tower remain from the original monastic complex. An angel guards the top of the ladder to make sure that none of the unfortunates falling to hell can somehow escape their fiery fate and scramble up to paradise. You will see a small family of bees through the glass wall of a hive and taste the natural and delicious honey produced here.

The Painted Monasteries of Romania

Our New Book Voronet Monastery Built in between 1487 and 1488 by Stephen the Great, the background color is an intense blue now called Voronet blue.

Northern Romania

Be sure to reserve your rooms in advance to enjoy a great experience in this beautiful land. This monastery also constructed a watchtower and high wall surrounding the complex in 1642.
