CHCECE006

All consultation responses were analysed, and final analysis and reporting was facilitated by an easily navigated evidence log. This analysis reflects only the views of those individuals and organisations who chose to respond.

Consultations: style and content format guidance (updated 9 April 2014)

This will provide much greater impact than our allocation from Sport England will be able to do in isolation. Implement strategies to support children or young people who require additional support 4.

Children and Young People Consultation

Throughout the report, we have provided information on the number of respondents who expressed particular views. Public feedback There's a word limit of 100 words to provide an overview of the feedback or to introduce attachments that summarise the feedback received from the public, companies, organisations etc. This includes flexibility on age groups which were previously prescribed and can now be defined by ourselves.

Children and Young People Consultation

This report The analysis presented in this report is based on an analysis of all consultation responses. Sport changes the person with disability in an equally profound way by empowering persons with disabilities to realize their full potential and advocate for changes in society. In order to develop a plan that meets the needs of children and young people in the Tees Valley, it is important that we find out the issues and where we can add value by speaking to local people and to the young people themselves.

Children and Young People Consultation

The analysis in this report refers to the proportions of different types of respondent which raised particular views; however, significant caution must be taken in interpreting these proportions, due to the very low numbers of responses from particular types of respondent. Use positive support techniques 2. However, some people thought it would be confusing and difficult to ask providers to decide who has to pay energy bills in the

The unique ability of sports to transcend linguistic, cultural and social barriers makes it an excellent platform for strategies of inclusion and adaptation. The selection committee will be composed of representatives of the programme partners, youth-led structures and relevant stakeholders in the field. This paper presented an initial overview of the main and most frequently recurring themes and views expressed per question, without elaborating on the supporting arguments or rationale in detail.
