Bernard Nathanson, referred to above, a Jew who performed 3,000 abortions and then changed his mind. Abortion and Catholicism: The American Debate. According to Nathanson, the actual number of women who died was 250, but the number they fed to the media was up to 10,000.

QUESTIONS ON ABORTION

No religion or group, on the other hand, should impose its position on the rest of the nation. Is it a concern for the moral progress of the human race, as with the Abolitionists? These are the sorts of questions which will have to be asked and wrestled with if our society is ever to make any progress toward a solution to the problem of abortion.

The abortion papers (1983 edition)

As previously reported by CP, the film encountered several obstacles, including banning its ads as well as losing cast members who opposed the film's mission. At the very least this disclosure of those odious tactics should compel those who are uneasy with permissive abortion to re-examine the issue. The science of genetics has confirmed that the embryo is identifiably human from the moment of conception.

The abortion papers (1983 edition)

But his message is one that many Christians might disagree with. We are taking life, and the deliberate taking of life, even of a special order and under special circumstances, is an inexpressibly serious matter. How should we apply ourselves to the problem of developing a more adequate and rationally coherent understanding of tyranny? The Soncino translation of the Talmud, with Hebrew original, is available on CD ROM from
