The general also has a famous grandson, SJA member Brough Scott, three times Sports Feature Writer of the Year, TV presenter, editorial director of the Racing Post and a former amateur jockey who rode at Aintree and Cheltenham. A gala dinner celebrating our colleagues work.

Brough Scott's further tales of the original War Horse

It involves some of the greatest heroes 3VCs that Canada ever produced and its surprise element is that this crucial engagement was a cavalry one. Squadron after squadron came thundering up the hill, taking terrible casualties but going on to exact many of their own.

Galloper Jack: A Grandson's Search for a Forgotten Hero

His early life was one of adventure, sailing to the antipodes, saving the crew of a French ship wrecked off the coast of the Isle of Wight and later raising a squadron and joining the Boer War, where he was awarded the DSO for his bravery.
