Congo Kid

For the first first time he could truly touch his wife.

Two Tales Of the Congo by Conrad, Joseph

I am further indebted to Mark Warwick, of Nairobi, for his initial interest in this project; Alan Binb, of Nairobi, for graciously offering to take me Into the Virunga region of Zaire; Joyce Small for arranging my transport, usually at short notice, to obscure parts of the world; and finally my special thanks to my assistant, Judith Lovejoy, whose untiring efforts through very difficult times were crucial to the completion of this book.

A Tale of Two Congos

Husband to one, father to two, father-in-law to two, grandfather to two, and Vessel of The One, Jeff is enjoying life and family more and more as he grows older. The old king became the high King, while his son ruled his own Kingdom, and became his heir to rule both when the older man died. I will go into the river, where my power is.

A hundred years later, a civil war ravaged the country, killing over five million.

Congo Tales

He wondered why on earth he had to take such a cheap cup when there were so many other better cups about.

Congo Tales

One of them, a huge, hungry witch, rolled out a huge cauldron from his house and filled with water.

Congo Kid

We learn that the dead are not always as sensible as the living; and of course, that a mother will love her children even beyond the grave. Cane, beat my stupid son.
