The Everyday Life Of Reindeer People Living In Mongolia

In Finland, there are about 6,000 reindeer herders, most of whom keep small herds of less than 50 reindeer to raise additional income. We rode in on horses and then spent our next days visiting quite a few other families by riding around the area on reindeer. The interplay of domestic life and power politics is both intimate and epic, as the reader follows the diverging fate of three charismatic but very different herding families through dangerous political and economic reforms.
