A number of speeches and articles relating to his substantial political career are also included. The result is, as I have said, that we have two languages--a spoken and a written. Nought is comparable to it except perhaps to pick out all by yourself in the exhibition the one picture that the experts have chosen for the museum or to be able to say you liked olives the first time you tasted them.

It is obvious that if these and all the other delegates to the conference had simply held out for the provisions most favorable to themselves no agreement would have been possible and the objects of the conference would have been defeated. This it is that makes the strength of America. One day you will make the connection and your life will in a trice be filled with light and instinct with action.

A recent series of comic pictures in the newspapers makes this clear. Chiefly legal records kept by Cohen during his 14 years as General Counsel of the United Farm Workers of America and personal attorney of César Chávez. Johnson AC 1962 and his architectural firm Edward T.

Cardinal Virtues in The Epic Of Gilgamesh

A poem that is no better than one a man might dash off himself he likes no longer; he prefers to be confronted with something that is above and beyond his own powers, though not above his comprehension. Why should we have two languages--as we practically do--one to be interpreted by the ear and the other by the eye? With so brief effort may we acquire literary knowledge sufficient to avoid embarrassment in ordinary conversation. Unpublished manuscripts, books, handwritten and decorated booklets, and photographs related chiefly to Fayad Jamis' career as a poet and book artist during the period 1959-1987.

Julia Abigail Fletcher Carney

The material spans the years 1804-1910, with the bulk of the material falling into the period 1820-1864.

It is still true that the book implies somewhat more of this than the newspaper, but the difference between the two is becoming unfortunately less. If we want exact statement, statistical or otherwise, we do not go to fiction for it; but if we wish to obtain what is often more important--accurate and lasting general impressions of history, society, or geography, the novel is often the only place where these may be had.
