When the wind is southerly, I know a hawk from a handsaw.

Act 2, scene 2

The latter case is hitherto the most frequent, as, in the human mind, one-sidedness has always been the rule, and many-sidedness the exception.
The Hussites were put down.

Matthew 24 NIV

In this citizenship of the universe consists man's true freedom, and his liberation from the thraldom of narrow hopes and fears. Thus, while diminishing our feeling of certainty as to what things are, it greatly increases our knowledge as to what they may be; it removes the somewhat arrogant dogmatism of those who have never travelled into the region of liberating doubt, and it keeps alive our sense of wonder by showing

SCENE III. The English camp.

In this fashion they are akin to individual souls, since neither souls nor form-copies will be dependent for their existence on the particular to which they temporarily belong.

familiar things in an unfamiliar aspect.

Plato's Middle Period Metaphysics and Epistemology (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

One gravitates toward Buddhi, the other, tending downward, to the seat of passions and animal desires.

John Keats

The first three of these comprise the Higher Triad and they last forever, while the lower four last just for one lifetime and are new in each lifetime that we have. The same thing holds true, generally speaking, of all traditional doctrines—those of prudence and knowledge of life, as well as of morals or religion. Evidence suggests that many of the supposed effects of the accident may have been exaggerated and that he was actually far more functional than previously reported.

What is Anthropology: Fields of Anthropology

He suffered a traumatic brain injury when an iron rod was driven through his entire skull, destroying much of his. Artaban sank beside a protecting wall. And it is only this consideration that has led the wisdom, intelligence and Christianity of the South to support and defend the institution up to this time.
