They would furnish the incriminating evidence at the trial a year later.

Portrait of Edmund Kean 1787

Second American visit A second visit to America in 1825 was largely a repetition of the persecution which he had suffered in England. The duke of Norfolk may have interceded to procure her initial engagement at Drury Lane, and it was on rumours of her liaison with him that Kean would later build the fiction of his aristocratic parentage. We learn mostly of theatrical productions of various kinds including pantomime and dances, and menageries exhibiting exotic animals, and less so of tumbling and acrobats, juggling, balancing and the like.
