I'm as trapped now as I was then. We are in our fifties btw, and his parents are in their upper seventies. I would categorize my entire life as being engulfed with guilt, shame and never feeling good enough.

Bully (Fall Away, #1) by Penelope Douglas

She was his second choice for a scapegoat. You get to know both of them as the story progresses and you also begin to understand both of them that much more.

6 Smarter Ways to Deal With a Bully

You are a wonderful wife! I stood up to him, starting at an early age. By twenty-nine I was generally terrified of leaving the house to go to a social gathering, convinced it would only make me miserable. Poor poor martyr he was! He now knows that I never want to be left alone with his mother due to this.
