Serbian Orthodox Church's communique on Kosovo and Metohija

CSIS does not take specific policy positions. Alongside this, the United States should also prioritize completing the implementation of existing agreements, such as mutual recognition of certifications and diplomas, border management, and air and rail links, to demonstrate there are tangible economic benefits to normalization.

Serbian Officials Double Down On Ethnic Insult, Stoking Tensions With Albanians

For its part, Kosovo believes it has already granted significant concessions to Serbia and therefore remains firmly against granting greater autonomy to its Serbian population. Because Chinese and Russian economic activities thrive on patronage networks and opaque transactions, more active U.

Thus, the mere uttering of the term is generally perceived as an act of aggression, regardless of the intentions of its user, for the reasons outlined below. In June the respective parliaments in both republics passed declarations of independence. Investment should be prioritized for localities in Serbia and Kosovo where mayors and local leaders embrace transparency and good governance but struggle in challenging the status quo.

The Serbia

Since the Ottoman Empire was an Islamic theocratic state, Christian Serbs lived as virtual bond servants — abused, humiliated and exploited. In the great majority of cases there exists very reliable information that the KLA was directly involved in these activities; however, at the moment it appears that there is a lack of political will to address this problem at either the local Kosovo level or at the level of the International Court in The Hague. CSIS Briefs are produced by the Center for Strategic and International Studies CSIS , a private, tax-exempt institution focusing on international public policy issues.

The Serbia

Abandoning this request would mean an approval of the post-war ethnic cleaning as a done deal. A timeline or mechanisms for implementation were never established. NATO starts air attacks against Yugoslavia in March 1999.

Negotiation process with Pristina

These arrangements are adopted on an interim basis. Against double standards If the behaviour of the Albanian majority population towards Serbs as a whole does not change in the near future, it will be difficult to deter the Serbs in the north of Kosovo, and perhaps in other enclaves as well, from protecting their rights and identity within the framework of a separate entity group of communities within the framework of a broader process of decentralization of Kosovo. For the United States to put these words into practice in the context of its diplomatic and economic assistance toward Serbia and Kosovo, it must prioritize and redirect transparent and accountable U.
