[PDF] SBC Annual 1914

General Weyler, the retiring captain-general, of Cuba, has granted amnesty to forty-six more political prisoners, including several women who have been confined on the Isle of Pines. That the Southern Baptist Convention pledges its utmost endeavors to evangelize whatever territory may be assigned to this Convention as our part of the world-wide task, and that we will urge upon all our churches to so increase their liberality that at the earliest possible date Baptist missions may be established in every country and province thus assigned. Address GEORGIA TELEGRAPH SCHOOL, Seaoia, Georgia.
