Click on the categories below to learn more about their purpose. These letters represent numbers, which are the cartographic date, in the form M YY. This seems to have been used on all the company's folding maps, and possibly also those in book form.

Geographers' A

They perform functions like preventing the same ad from continuously reappearing, ensuring that ads are properly displayed for advertisers, and in some cases selecting advertisements that are based on your interests. They produced three special maps detailing transport information on getting to the venues and also provided information on events related to the.

In addition, A—Z provided special sections relating to the Games in their 2012 editions of their main UK-wide and local maps.

Malvern Map

The familiar A-Z street guides are based on Ordnance Survey mapping augmented to incorporate additional material acquired by the company's own cartographers from sources such as the Department of Transport, County Councils and Borough Councils. Its first atlas, of, was originally compiled in the 1930s by. Founded in 1936 by Phyllis Pearsall MBE, A-Z is one of the largest independent map publishing companies in the UK, producing iconic products such as the London A-Z streetmap and over 340 other mapping products.

In one scheme, the letters JIHGFEDCBA represent the digits 1 to 9 and 0, so that HFD would be 357, indicating a publication date of March 1957. This revealed that, on all their maps, A—Z print a non-existent so that they can tell if a map has been illegally copied from theirs, a technique used by several publishers of reference works see.
