Calumet City History

Dodge, founder of Dodge's Telegraph and Radio Institute; Ross Woodhull, president of the Chicago Sanitary District; John H. The last-named afterwards became an influential New York capitalist who, among other things, rendered great financial aid to the state government of Indiana during the Civil War and whose beautiful Greek Revival mansion at Madison, Indiana, is now a state historic shrine.

The Dutch in the Calumet Region by Ken Bult

Yes, we know that polluting our environment with smog and chemicals, and dumping in our lakes and land are increasing global warming but the natural affects are being influenced even more because the sun is incapable of doing its job.

The Dutch in the Calumet Region by Ken Bult

It was the work of Walter Scholer, a La Fayette, Indiana, architect. While, according to Rafert, the Miami did not rely on fishing, archaeological evidence, particularly around Lake Michigan, shows that it was essential for other Native Americans in the Calumet Region Gartner 336. Had it not been for some far-seeing members of Indiana's first state constitutional convention, this line might have become fixed as the new state's north boundary, which would have meant, of course, the cutting off of Indiana from any frontage on Lake Michigan.
