POLITICAL VIOLENCE AND SOCIO

Political parties should act as a means of democratic governance instead of working as a coordinated criminal enterprise applied for gaining, seeking and retaining power so as to loot public treasury. Small scale enterprises have been observed over the years to have immense potentials for socio-economic development of a nation.

Economic Development in Nigeria: An Overview

In the current situation, Nigeria has fewer buffers and policy instruments to cushion adverse effects. Indeed, many are still struggling to come to terms that we are now practicing democracy.

Environmental Issues And Socio

What constitutes good life is highly subjective, hence the importance accorded to different aspects of well being varies among individuals, societies and generations.

Environmental Issues And Socio

It is a serious attribute of the majority of the developing global political systems most especially in developing nations like Nigeria where politics have become a significant attribute of the individual means of attaining economic wealth.

Economic Development in Nigeria: An Overview

These pre-existing structural challenges have left the Nigerian economy especially vulnerable to the COVID-19 outbreak and its consequences.

POLITICAL VIOLENCE AND SOCIO

The onus is on electoral umpires to ensure the electoral process is credible in order to eliminate the constant cases of violence that is now associated with elections. Business people suffer serious losses as a result of political violence. The campaigns should center on the execution of the essential national economic, social cultural, political, health and educational services.

Nigerian Socio

Still, the sector accounts for over 26. Transport in Nigeria has also suffered a lot of setbacks due to poor management and maintenance. The Bank Group also supports increased engagement in the climate resilient agenda as well as to the COVID-19 pandemic and its post-recovery efforts.
