A second sense, used by some writers, concerned the assimilation of foreign vocabulary into Arabic in a way that would make the language suitable for modern life, while at the same time preserving its essential character. The total area of the national parks and reserves is 1,959,203 hectares 4,841,191 acres. Is it any wonder that he sits among his beer pots, half dazed and half crazed by the situation, and that the demand of the white man that he go to work and live like a civilized being finds him unable to respond? Wearing glasses for sight or reading was considered a sin.
