London Gazette

On 4 July 1916, the gazette printed a despatch from the Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, Commander-in-Chief of Grand Fleet, reporting the action in the North Sea on 31 May 1916, The Battle of Jutland.

The London Gazette, Supplements August 1914

I have other volumes of the Gazette, 1820 to 1850. Fold-outs, if any, are not part of the book.

London Gazette

If the original book was published in multiple volumes then this reprint is of only one volume, not the whole set. The Part Played by the Allied Air Forces in the Final Defeat of the Enemy in the Mediterranean Theatre March to May 1945. Travers is the youngest person to receive the Victoria Cross.

London Gazette

Far East October 1940-December 1941. Leather Binding on Spine and Corners with Golden leaf printing on spine.

The London Gazette, Supplements August 1914

Internally, library label on fixed endpaper, odd library stamp, some dust or dirt marking. Bound in black buckram cloth. A massive advantage of using this particular set of Gazettes as the base for your search is the fact that the skilful editing has resulted in most non-relevant sections being discarded.

London Gazettes

I have other volumes of the Gazette, 1820 to 1850. The London Gazette was the official journal of the British government. Internally, library label on fixed endpaper, odd library stamp, some dust or dirt marking.
