Tahdzib Syarah Aqidah Ath Thahawiyyah (Syaikh Abu Basheer At Tarthusi)

Opinions diverge widely as to where this portion of the Qur'an starts, some putting it as early as sura 50. In such a situation, they would write the verses that come before and after it, and would leave a place for it, until that person had returned or was summoned. It gives a full account on what īmān is, of what it consists, its nature, its features etc.

The author emphasizes this, and how the Salaf understood this by mentioning similar statements by others.

All these traditions are contradicted by information that indicates that the Qur'an was collected and recorded during the lifetime of the Messenger of God peace be upon him and his progeny. Traditions 1 and 22 state clearly that it was Abu Khuzayma.

Tahdzib Syarah Aqidah Ath Thahawiyyah (Syaikh Abu Basheer At Tarthusi)

Unfortunately the book has not been found in total, and the smaller part recovered has been edited and another part is still in manuscript form. It reveals the right track of the Ahl al-Sunnah, and rejects the innovated stances of many scholars, many righteous and close to the Sunnah, concerning Tawhid, the Names, the Attributes etc.
