What is Juice Therapy? All You Need To Know About!

I've interviewed over 60 people who've healed all types and stages of cancer. The generous amounts of organic minerals in raw juices especially calcium, potassium and silicon help the restoration of biochemical and mineral balance in the tissues and cells, thereby stopping the premature ageing of cells and disease. Because I understood that the toxins from the bacteria were what were causing most of my immediate problem, I started thinking of how to reduce the toxic load in my system.
