Romans 5:16

They are sown natural bodies, but they are to rise spiritual bodies.

NO CONDEMNATION AND NO SEPARATION

I don't want to get this all out on the table.
Let him urge any who have yet to learn it to learn all this in their own experience, claiming on their knees the mighty gift of God. Not all believers fail in the first hours of their faith to realise, and to use, the fulness of what the Covenant gives them.

The Final Victory Over Sin

Our justification does not depend on our walk. Another relative union, employed to illustrate that which subsists between Christ and believers, is the union of a chief and his followers, which is simply a union of design, interest, sentiment, affection, destiny, etc. Justification, and the favour of God, bring peace, hope, and joy; sanctification brings deliverance from restless and distressing lusts and passions; practical righteousness brings the approbation of God, and the testimony of a good conscience.

The seriousness of this condemnation cannot be overstated.

Billy Graham: The Hope of Eternal Life

Men die for the sin of Adam. The result was that he knew Christ was able to keep him against that day.

Romans 8:1 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

But this experience, though often intensely painful, ought not to be crushing; it is from our sins and not from their effects that we care most to be delivered.
