Content Accuracy rating: 5 It is perhaps unfair or not entirely feasible for a social scientist, such as myself, to attempt to describe the accuracy or degrees of bias on topics that social scientists, such as myself, acknowledge are inherently subjective and require contextualization in time, place, and language. The Government subsequently appointed Justice Desiree Bernard, the only female high court judge at the time, to head a committee in order to examine Articles 29 and 30 of the Constitution as against existing laws and to see how they could be amended. However, I was able to access it at a later time.
