Besides, I must leave something for your future research. Let the sympathetic reader try to realize what it means never to feel the touch of anything soft or warm, never to see anything that is attractive—nothing but stone above, around, and beneath.

Gentlemen's Agreement

The slaveowner's letter has been lost to the passage of time, , but Jourdon's response was published in a Cincinnati newspaper and survives to this day. Hunt, who, after some hesitation, said he could not pay the sum without the sanction of the public, which must be obtained at the public meeting: this, I observed , would place us in a very awkward situation, and that if he persisted I must be necessitated to borrow more money, or the business must stand still, and the object of the meeting weakened, if not defeated: here I left him, and Dr.
