Halfway houses serving the mentally ill and alcoholics, United States, 1969

The Global Report on Human Settlements is the most authoritative and up-to-date assessment of conditions and trends in the world's cities. In this setting, cruel punishments were all too common, as was sexual abuse. From this assessment, the immensity of the challenges that slums pose is clear.

Acute services for the severely ill were expanded, and public hospitals, relieved of caring for large numbers of chronic or aged patients, developed into more active treatment centers. Together, mental and substance-use illnesses are the leading cause of death and disability for women, the highest for men ages 15-44, and the second highest for all men. The report offers 94 calls to action on the part of governments, churches, public institutions and non-Aboriginal Canadians as a path to meaningful reconciliation of Canada today with Aboriginal citizens.

From this assessment, the immensity of the challenges that slums pose is clear. Almost 1 billion people live in slums, the majority in the developing world where over 40 per cent of the urban population are slum dwellers.
