Epistolae Ho Elianae

But, Sir, you must give me leave and for this leave you shall have authority to deal with me in such a case to tell you, that whereas they consist only of Requests, being all supplicatory Prayers, you should do well to intersperse among them some eucharistical Ejaculations, and Doxologies, some oblations of Thankfulness; we should not be always whining in a puling petitionary way which is the Tone of the Time now in fashion before the gates of Heaven with our fingers in our eyes, but we should lay our hands upon our hearts, and break into raptures of Joy and Praise.

James Howell

No more now, but that I rest still — Yours entirely to serve you, J. Thus Geneva Lake swallow'd up the Episcopal Sea, and Church-Lands were made secular, which was the white they levell'd at.
