A Cairn by the Cabin Walden Pond. I walked here quickly through the dark street— a middle-aged woman carrying two bags. And the questions it raises seem especially appropriate today, in the midst of the mid-winter holidays representing so many spiritual traditions.

red letter poems by english men and women

And grandparent, parent, child, grandchild seem to be elemental parts of the landscape, entwined with all that green urgency — and subject to sun, rain and all the varieties of mortal weather. I believe there is always a sound-signature that great poems leave on us. Katherine Clark MA-05 provided the following Feb.
