Al

The caliph then gave him a thousand dinars and restored him to his family in Madina. To vanquish the enemy with goodness certainly requires the foresight the Imam possessed. .

ʿUmar ibn Al

This man is known for his intuition and intelligence, his accuracy of vision and insight, of being conscientious, and of conquering the desires of the self. Once he was passing by a house and heard little children weeping. He is one of the guided Caliphs and one of the in-laws of the Prophet, prayers and peace of Allah be upon him.

تورات شریف میں کی نشانی

He hit him three strokes, or six; one of them under the navel, that he fell to the ground. He enquired as to why they were crying. His son, Abdullah put his head in his lap.

ʿUmar ibn Al

His name is linked to piety, observing and fearing Allah, and crying out of fearing Him. He was told that they were orphans and their mother had just died and now they had no one to look after them.

تورات شریف میں کی نشانی

The Imamate of the 7th Imam extended through the ten remaining years of the caliphate of Mansur, and included the ten years of the rule of Mahdi, one year and some months of Hadi and about twelve years of the reign of Harun al- Rashid.
